Got News??

From Somerset County
Department of Emergency Services:
Damage Assessment

Have you experienced damage to your home from Flooding on May 13th?

Beginning Wednesday morning, May 14th, damage assessment teams from the county, municipalities, and the Red Cross will begin to determine the amount of damage to homes, properties, businesses, and infrastructure throughout the county as a result of the flooding that began on Tuesday, May 13.

Any residents who have experienced damage to their homes may request a disaster assessment. This may be done by completing a Disaster Intake Form on the Somerset County website at <https://www.co.somerset.pa.us/disasterrecovery/disasterrecovery.asp> or they may call the Emergency Management office at 814-445-1515. A damage assessment team will then be in touch to make arrangements to visit your property.

Thank you
To all our area first responders!
You are awesome!!!
